

Gina Morgan is a personal and executive coach, trainer, master CORE Facilitator and author. Her direct approach coupled with her ability to truly connect with her clients allows her to get to the core issues rapidly and help clients overcome old conditioned patterns and roadblocks that have been preventing them from achieving their desired outcomes personally and professionally. Gina is also a certified grief recovery counselor which gives her a unique ability to tap into and heal pain points that may be affecting productivity and outcomes. She is an expert in the areas of leadership, inter-personal effectiveness, communication, diplomacy, stress management, family dynamics, relationships, and parenting spirited children. She has over 20 years of experience helping clients develop their natural strengths, improve communications, develop greater levels of EQ, improve relationship outcomes and maximize personal productivity. She has developed curriculum for numerous adult training programs as well as editing and curriculum services for the DCCC system. Gina is vice-president and COO of NaviCore International. She is co-developer of the highly acclaimed CORE Multidimensional Awareness Profile and the CORE Personal Effectiveness Profile. She is author of a children's book titled If Teddy Could Talk that opens the door to communication for families with terminally ill children and a contributing author to Chicken Soup for the Soul: Children with Special Needs.