

Jeannie Anderson founded LifeSigns.us, Inc. a non-profit organization in 2010. At that time it was designed for women who were truly committed to helping themselves. Women looking for an opportunity, LifeSigns programs provided guidance through coaching and mentoring, preparation for a better career with continued education, career and financial skills, and continued support and encouragement as they took the necessary steps to begin a new way of life.

In 2015-16 LifeSigns expanded its reach to include programs for men. At the same time she worked with the Monroe County Sheriff Department to create the 2nd Chance Program, a new program for the incarcerated men and women housed in the Monroe County Jail, located in Madisonville, Tennessee. Jeannie and her team opened First House, a transitional living facility for graduates of the program to reside while they reenter the community, becoming employed and maintaining their hard won sobriety. The Business and Entrepreneurial Training Center has developed in 2014-15 out of a need to give students a place to utilize their new skill sets.

She is also the owner and CEO of Pathways With Purpose, LLC a personal development and coaching company. With her natural gifts of insight and thoughtful wisdom she explores the subject of life's experiences. She teaches understanding and implementing emotional intelligence; strengthening personal foundations; personal planning, goal setting; and simplifying life and stress management. Her coaching style has been described as authentic, intuitive, challenging, informative, direct, supportive, developmental and fun.

Within the professional coaching arena Jeannie launched Conscious Corporate Concepts a division of Pathways which coaches leaders who have the desire to lead and grow their corporations ~ consciously. Her coaching specialties include: leveraging and retaining high potential employees; leadership and management skill development using inherent capabilities; small business development and growth. Her coaching clients include executives and managers within mid-to large organizations, small business owners and entrepreneurs. Her client list includes CEO's, Managers, HR Directors, and Advisors from companies such as Eco Analysts Inc., Principal Financial Group, Trans Union, and Global Eagle.

Jeannie speaks, coaches and conducts workshops and retreats for personal and professional clients throughout the United States. She is the author of numerous self growth articles and the CORE Coaches Guide for NaviCORE International Inc. Jeannie is a graduate of Coach U and a Master Certified CORE Coach and Licensed Facilitator, Presenter and Trainer through NaviCORE International Inc.

Jeannie resides with her family in Sweetwater, Tennessee.N.